

Modern flamenco is a highly-technical dance that features lightning-fast footwork and colorful attire. This traditional dance requires years of training to master.

The Costa Del Sol (“Coast of the Sun”) is a popular tourist destination known for its exciting nightlife, endless sunshine, and relaxing way of life.

Composed of cut fruit, red wine, and other spirits, Sangria is an alcoholic beverage enjoyed around Spain. This colorful beverage is typically served in a large pitcher and chilled over ice.